NO MAPS BOUGHT FOR CITY SCHOOLS IN TWENTY YEARS

No Supplemental Books Have Been Purchased in Last Half Dozen Years.

Advise That They Should be Added to Equipment.

HIS REPORT OF ATTENDANCE

Supt. J. A. Carnegie made two interesting reports to the school board last night. In the first one he says: "In compliance with your request, I have investigated the matter of purchasing maps and supplementary books for all of the schools of the city. There are nine buildings. We need one set of outline geography maps for each building. We need also, two sets of history maps, one for the purpose of teaching United States history and one set for the use of the history and Latin departments in the high school. These sets comprise eight maps each. We can get a medium priced set of outline maps for $24. This is just one-half the regular list price, and for the standard maps, I should advise the putting in of one large set in the Broadway school. This set can be purchased for $55.

"The various book firms will make us a 20 per cent deduction from list prices on First, Second and Third readers. The First readers we can get for 20c each, the second for 24c each and the third for 30c each. We need 10 sets of First readers, 25 books in the set; 18 sets of Second readers of 25 books each, and 15 sets of Third readers. The maps will cost $295, the supplementary books will cost $280 or a total of $575.50, or an average of about $64 to the building. This, in view of the fact, that no maps have been purchased for the use of the schools for possibly fifteen or twenty years, and no supplementary books for the last six or eight years, is certainly a moderate cost for such things. Our work in geography and history has been hampered this year for the need of maps. In fact, a teacher cannot do satisfactory work in either of these subjects without maps. Reading I regard as the basal study in the primary grades, and we cannot do the work that we should without more reading matter, and we cannot well ask parents to buy more than the state has authorized. I am very sorry to say that most of our adopted books which we are in a measure compelled to use, are as much behind the times as a scythe is behind an up-to-date mowing machine, or an oxcart is behind an automobile as a conveyance.

"I wish to recommend that before the opening of schools in September, the superintendent be authorized to see that the schools are provided with the maps and supplementary readers herein provided for."

The Attendance.

In his report he says in part: "The total enrollment in the schools to date is 3,771 or 29 more than during the entire year of 1906-07. This, too, in spite of the fact that the enumeration of the present year is less than the enumeration of last year. This is an encouraging condition, as it shows that the people are appreciating the schools and are sending more of their children. There are still far too many children of Paducah of school age who are not deriving any benefit from the schools because they are not enrolled. The creation of a good school sentiment is one of those things for which I am continually striving.

"There have been in the month 3,288 children enrolled. The average daily attendance is 2,757, a decrease of 56 from February, due, as I said before, to the mumps. In the matter of tardiness we are improving. The number of cases in March was 473, a decrease of $9 from February. The number of cases of corporal punishment was six, five of these being in the colored schools. The number of cases of truancy was eight, and the number of suspensions two. There are twenty-six tuition pupils in the schools.

"The health of the teachers has been fairly good. Miss McBroom was out nine and one-half days on account of illness; Miss Ford was sick one week, and Miss Wilcox was out one week on account of trouble with her eyes. Three other teachers were absent one-half day each. The entire time lost by all teachers for the month was 22 days. All these items are specifically shown on the statistical report handed to the secretary."

G. C. McClarin and Clarence Phillips, well known business men of Murray, were here last night.

Results of Local Option Contests in Illinois Towns and Counties Yesterday Considerably Mixed.

Larger Cities Generally Voted to Retain Licensed Saloons,
While Country Places Voted Them Out.

Chicago, April 8.—In the local option elections held in 120 townships in the 84 counties of Illinois outside of Chicago 20 counties became absolutely anti-saloon territory and 1,500 or about one-half of the total number of saloons in that territory were voted out of business. Most of the larger cities, however, voted in favor of licensing the saloons. The following counties are now anti-saloon territory, so created by the voters yesterday: Boone, Moultrie, Fayette, Hamilton, Edgar, Clark, Brown, Saline, Gallatin, Douglas, Macon, Cumberland, Platt, Shelby, Coles, White, Wayne and Richmond.

Chicago City Elections.
Chicago, April 8.—The Republicans made a gain of ten aldermen in the election in Chicago. The new council contains 44 Republicans and 26 Democrats.

The present council contains 35 Democrats, one Independent Democrat, and 34 Republicans.

Although the question of Sunday closing of saloons was barred from the ballot by court action, the United Societies for local self-government gained a victory, inasmuch as but a few of the 70 aldermen who will compose the new council, they declared are opposed to the society's platform favoring personal liberty.

Of the townships in Cook county where the saloon question was at issue, Hanover, Maine, Proviso, Worth, and Thornton voted in favor of the saloon; and Riverside against saloons. The vote on the proposition to issue $2,000,000 county bonds to build a new infirmary was overwhelmingly in the affirmative.

Murphysboro Wet.
Murphysboro, April 8.—Fourteen of the sixteen townships in Jackson county were won by the anti-saloon forces. Murphysboro went wet by 139 majority. Grand Tower was the only other town in the county going wet. Carbondale went dry by 175.

Around East St. Louis.
St. Louis, April 8.—The local option forces were defeated by substantial majorities in all Illinois towns across the river from St. Louis according to returns.

Madison county, in which the towns are situated, went practically as a unit against the "dry" ticket. Outside the belt of towns adjoining St.

SOUTH DAKOTA INDORSES W. H. TAFT FOR PRESIDENT AND LAUDS ROOSEVELT POLICY

Crowning Virtues of Republican
Achievement Seen in Administration.

Huron, S. D., April 8.—The Republican convention elected delegates to the national convention as follows: Governor Coe I. Crawford, E. L. Sent, K. O. Stand, A. W. Ewert, C. H. Dillon, A. L. Lockhart, R. C. Grimshaw, P. H. O'Neal.

Alternates—C. J. Anderson, C. J. Lavett, C. W. Pratt, Charles Mix, George W. Merry, H. C. Alexander, O. S. Swenson, F. A. Brown and G. A. Hoffman.

The resolutions opened with a tribute to President Roosevelt. Roosevelt's policies are declared to be the crowning virtue of the achievements of the Republican party, standing for "that righteousness which exalteth a nation."

"In view of his refusal to accept another nomination, the resolutions declare for the nomination of Taft; a man of great ability, broad experience and whose judicial and administrative training peculiarly equip him for the broad and varied duties of chief executive."

The resolutions declare for an immediate revision of the tariff schedule which revision shall place lumber, coal and iron upon the free list, and that the tariff be removed from all articles, the price of production of which is controlled by a monopoly. Commend railroad legislation and favor an extension of the powers of the interstate commerce commission.

Demand the enactment of laws by congress supervising the incorporation of all public service corporations engaged in interstate commerce under the national laws.

Favor laws providing that the

Louis, the prohibition forces seem to have won in a majority of instances. Madison county towns going "wet" and saloons continued, were: Alton, 65; Edwardsville, 35; Tri-Cities (Granite City, Madison and Venice), 125; Wool River, 35; Omphgent, 15; with smaller ones bringing the total up to 324.

Wet and Dry Majorities.
Chicago, April 8.—As far as heard from the principal cities and towns in Illinois voted as follows on the liquor question.

City	Wet	Dry
Springfield	1800	...
Freeport	734	...
Rockford	164	...
Centralia	33	...
Aurora	1690	...
Elgin	1326	...
Bellevue	50	...
Decatur	1041	...
Hoopeston	935	...
Dixon	104	...
Sterling	1	...
Carbondale	175	...
Murphysboro	139	...
Lincoln	189	...
Pontiac	353	...
Bloomington	319	...
Monmouth	131	...
Joliet	2464	...

Springfield Wet.
Springfield, Ill., April 8.—Springfield voted in favor of saloons by 1,800 majority. Taylorville, Pana and every other township in Christian county, except Assumption, went dry.

Winnebago County Dry.
Rockford, Ill., April 8.—Winnebago county voted out 56 saloons, 53 of them in Rockford, and three in Pecatonica. The entire county is now anti-saloon.

BOMB WAS THROWN INTO RESIDENCE DESPITE POLICE

Chicago, April 8.—Despite police vigilance a bomb was thrown into the home of Antonio Luno, a wealthy Italian, whose son was threatened with kidnapping a week ago. The house was badly wrecked. The occupants are uninjured. For a week the police accompanied the boy to school. They have been guarding the house day and night.

CONFERENCE RESUMED

Louisville, Ky., April 8. (Special.)—The conference of western Kentucky miners and operators, which was broken off by the operators on account of the miners' at Graham striking contrary to the agreement, will be renewed today. The miners have gone back to work.

Wisconsin Instructed.
Milwaukee, Wis., April 8.—The Wisconsin delegation to the Republican convention will go instructed for LaFollette.

Taft Has Minnesota.
St. Paul, Minn., April 8.—Returns from all parts of the state where primaries were held Saturday and Monday show that there is now no question about Secretary Taft having the Minnesota delegation for him at the Chicago convention and it is very doubtful if any other candidate for the presidency will be able to secure even a single delegate from this state. Most of the counties have held their primaries and with a few exceptions there were no contests. In some counties fights were put up by LaFollette supporters, but to date the only counties which were won for the Wisconsin man are Wilkes and Clay.

Another Family Flees.
Another colored family left Maxon Mills yesterday for Illinois, fleeing from night rider warnings. A family of five went on the Bettie Owen. They had three loads of furniture, a team, and wagon and a cow. No one believes the warnings mean anything and Judge Lightfoot assured the victims of protection, but some of them are becoming panic stricken. It is believed if the exodus continues western Kentucky farmers will face a dearth of farm labor.

BRAVE STRUGGLE ENDED BY DEATH OF JOHN T. FISHER

Assistant Postmaster of Paducah Succumbs After a Prolonged Illness.

Man of Sterling Character
Known to Many Friends.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR FUNERAL

Mr. John T. Fisher, assistant postmaster and one of Paducah's most prominent men, died last night at 6 o'clock at his home, 614 Kentucky avenue, after a long illness of complication of diseases. Mr. Fisher had been ill for some time, and was confined to his bed several weeks ago, but his strong constitution and will power prolonged his life. He had been in declining health several years.

Mr. Fisher was a native of Paducah and was born March 8, 1859, and was the son of the late Hon. John G. Fisher, who was mayor of the city. On October 11, 1881, he was married to Miss Sophia Graham, who survives him. He leaves only one daughter, Miss Iola Fisher. His sisters are Mrs. W. F. Paxton and Miss Lula Fisher, and he has one brother living, Postmaster Frank M. Fisher.

Mr. Fisher was a staunch member of the St. Francis de Sales church, and had been for many years. He was a member of the Paducah lodge of Elks, the St. Mary's branch of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America. While Mr. Fisher was a quiet and unassuming man, he was popular with a wide circle of friends, and the more intimately they knew him the better his sterling character was known, and appreciated. Mr. Fisher had been assistant postmaster for about seven years.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at St. Francis de Sales church by Rev. Father Jansen. The burial will follow in Oak Grove cemetery. The Elks will have charge of the ceremony at the cemetery. The honorary pall-bearers will be: A. W. Greif, Richard Geagan, John T. Donovan, Richard D. Clements, William Robertson, Henry Gockel, D. A. Yeiser and James P. Smith. The active pall-bearers will be: Michael Griffin, Richard Davis, William Lydon, Sr., Edward Riley, James Glauber, John J. Dorian, Dr. H. F. Williamson and R. T. Lightfoot.

Miss Iola Fisher, his daughter, arrived this morning from St. Louis where she has been on a visit. His sister, Miss Lula Fisher, will arrive tomorrow morning from Cordelia, Ga. Mr. Fisher's death was quite sudden, although he had been ill a long time, and his relatives were not alarmed over his condition until late yesterday afternoon.

MURDER EIGHTEEN CHILDREN---BURY THEM ALIVE, MAYBE

Seville, Spain, April 8.—Suspected of murdering eighteen of their children, Anarchist Molina and Francesa Herrera, with whom he lived for thirty years, were arrested and charged with wholesale infanticide. A mob tried to lynch the couple. Police believe some of the children were buried alive.

NOT A PIPEFUL FOR EACH TOBACCO GROWER.

Lexington, Ky., April 8.—"We have the fight won against the 1908 tobacco crop," said J. D. Clark, secretary of the local Equity Society branch, "and not enough tobacco will be raised to give each grower a pipeful. This is shown from reports in possession of the society showing the number of plant beds sown."

An independent buyer examined six thousand pounds, with a view of buying and twenty thousand pounds was sold at 15 to 20 cents.

FLYING SQUADRON OF SOLDIERS FOR THE BLACK PATCH

Eddyville, Ky., April 8.—(Special.)—J. H. Peak and Kelly Knight were held over to the grand jury charged with night riding. All the present troops but ten are to go. About 100 others are to be put in camp here to act as a flying squadron in the dark district.

RECEIVER CASE

Washington, April 8.—The question of whether the receiver of the Waters-Pierce Oil company, appointed by Texas, or the receivers appointed by the federal court should have jurisdiction during the determination of the right of the company to do business in Texas is being argued in the supreme court today.

ANTI-RACE TRACK GAMBLING BILL MAY MEET DEFEAT

Albany, April 8.—At 12:30 o'clock today it seems the anti-race track gambling bill will be lost. Twenty-six votes are necessary to enact and 24 only are in sight.

Hughes may eliminate himself from the race for the Republican presidential nomination should the anti-race track gambling bill be killed today. He recently said he would not seek renomination for governor but if the bill is defeated it is thought he will seek renomination to work for the anti-race track bills.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB

The Paducah Automobile club held a meeting last night at Foreman Brothers Electric company, elected officers and effected a reorganization of the club. The officers that were elected are: President, Joseph R. Grogan; first vice president, Fins Lack; second vice president, Dr. P. H. Stewart; secretary, Robert Gresham, and treasurer, Richard Rudy. This summer the club will make many runs to the towns in western Kentucky, and the first run will be to Benton, Sunday, April 26. During the summer at some date that will be selected, the club will have a big parade and every car in the city will be in line. One of the strong points of the club is to make friends with the farmers and to co-operate with residents of the county for better roads. The club will join the state association, and also become identified with the National association. Not only automobile owners are eligible for membership, but the owners of motor boats and motor cycles. The executive committee of the club will consist of the five officers, and Messrs. Jesse Weil and Ben Weile.

CALLOWAY COUNTY BOY ARRESTED AT NASHVILLE, TENN.

Charged With the Murder of Vaughn Bennett, the Youthful Night Rider.

Hill Billies Waylaid Them on Their Return.

HENRY BENNETT WAS COUSIN

Murray, Ky., April 8.—(Special.)—Walter C. Hunt, one of the two men now confined in the county jail at Nashville, Tenn., on a charge of being implicated in the murder of Vaughn Bennett, near Clarksville, Tenn., March 10, is a native of Calloway county and his parents, his brother and several sisters now reside in this county. His father, Magistrate Hunt, lives near Almo and has always been prominent in the political affairs of the county. Mrs. K. Robertson, wife of a well known merchant of Murray, is a sister of Walter Hunt.

Young Hunt moved to Montgomery county, Tenn., where the killing occurred, several years ago and engaged in farming and tobacco re-handling. He was not a member of the association and it is charged that he belonged to a body of "hill billies" banded together for the purpose of protecting themselves against night riders. Vaughn Bennett, the man who was shot and killed, is said to have been wearing a mask when found dead by the roadside and is believed to have been returning from a night rider raid. Another interesting fact to western Kentucky farmers is that Vaughn Bennett, who was killed, was a cousin of Henry Bennett, the Dycusburg tobacco buyer, who was whipped by night riders.

The killing occurred along the roadside and Bennett's brother, who was wounded in the arm, said they were ambushed from behind a fence; but he would say nothing about the party with them.

It is said the "hill billies" were informed by telephone of the movements of the night riders, whom they knew and with whose habits they were acquainted, and they waylaid the night riders.

It is probable that the latter were engaged in some devilment at or near the spot, where Bennett was killed, as a broken hitch strap indicates that some rider had no time to unhitch his horse when the shooting commenced.

BRIDE IS DYING

Mayfield, Ky., April 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Ike Sullivan, a bride of a few weeks, is expected to die of peritonitis.

SCHEDULE FOR FLEET

Washington, April 8.—The navigation bureau issued a schedule for the battleship squadron after review at San Francisco. The Pacific fleet goes south on May 9. The Atlantic fleet leaves for Puget sound May 18. The vessels will be docked if necessary before returning to San Francisco.

NAVAL PROGRAM

Washington, April 8.—Two battleships, costing $6,000,000 each, and ten torpedo boats costing $700,000, eight submarine torpedo boats at a total cost of $3,500,000, one sub-surface torpedo boat at $225,000, are the increased war weapons in the naval appropriation bill reported to the house by the naval affairs committee.

JOHNSON SAYS BRYAN DOES NOT SPEAK TRUE

Chicago April 8.—Governor Johnson denied the charge reported to have been made against him by Bryan, saying "James J. Hill is not supporting me in my candidacy for the presidential nomination. Hill fought me in two campaigns. It is unlikely he would support me now." He said if Bryan is nominated he will be one of Bryan's strongest supporters.

SALARIES.

Washington, $150; Franklin, $100; Lee, $95; Jefferson, $95; Longfellow, $85; McKinley, $85; Whittier, $75; Lincoln, $70; Garfield, $60.

All the old principals of the public schools, who applied for positions, were re-elected by the school board last night. Professor F. W. Feezor, of the Franklin building, and Professor Rudolph, of the Whittier building, did not seek re-election, and Professor John J. Gains, connected with the Newport schools, and Professor Herman L. Donivan, of Bowling Green, a teacher in the state normal school, were selected.

Salaries were fixed for the year.

Teachers will be elected at the May session of the board.

It was decided that the graduates this year shall wear caps and gowns at commencement and that no presents shall be allowed in the building, where the exercises are held. The old plan of wearing expensive graduating costumes, either heaped on the shoulders or carried in the hands, was an unnecessary burden on the poor pupil or compelled him or her to be humiliated by the contrast, and the display of presents also made a distinction between the pupils.

President Bondurant and the finance committee were authorized to borrow $10,000 until the schools receive Physical Examination.

Next month it will be decided whether a business course or manual training or both shall be adopted for next year. Also it will be decided whether or not teachers shall undergo a physical examination.

The committee last night reported as follows:

To the Honorable Board of Education, City.

Gentlemen: Your committee on rules and revisions, to whom was referred the matter of bringing in a resolution governing the physical examination of teachers in the public schools of Paducah, Ky., begs leave to submit the following health regulations:

It is ordered and ordained by the board of education of Paducah that:

Section 1. A board of medical examiners be, and the same is hereby created, for the purpose of examining applicants for the position of teacher in the public schools of the city, together with those employed in that capacity, as to their health and general physical condition. The said board of examiners are to be subject to the board of education at all times and its members may be removed by them at pleasure. The fees to be paid the board of examiners for each examination, when properly certified to, shall not exceed same to be paid by the board of education.

Section 2. Applicants for position as teacher in the public schools must file their applications in writing, with the board of education, accompanied by a certificate of good health and sound physical condition, said certificate to be obtained from the board of medical examiners hereinafter provided for. Teachers who are employed in the schools or who may be applicants for reappointment, shall furnish a similar certificate whenever required to do so by the board of education.

Sec. 3. It is further ordered that all teachers now employed in the public schools, who may be applicants for reappointment, shall file their applications in writing, with the board of education, accompanied by a certificate of good health and sound physical condition obtained from the board of medical examiners hereinafter provided for.

J. C. FARLEY, Committee.

The question of issuing bonds was postponed until fall. Trustee Hills reported small chance of collecting from the city the schools' share of back taxes. Secretary Kelly was instructed to pay the school enumerators when they return the scholastic census.

Trustees Bondurant, Kelly, Maxwell, Karnes, Morris, Hills, Clements, Winstead, Farley, Byrd and Walston were present. Trustee Murray was unable to attend last night.

JOHNSON LEAVES

STARTS FOR SHILOH BATTLEFIELD WITH FULL STAFF.

Minnesota Governor and Notable Men to Unveil Monument to Soldiers.

St. Paul, Minn., April 8.—Governor Johnson and his staff, comprising forty-five persons, left St. Paul yesterday for Shiloh battlefield in Shiloh National park, where the governor will deliver the principal address at the unveiling of the Minnesota memorial monument in the park on April 10.

Addresses will also be delivered at that time by Gen. C. C. Andrews, Gen. L. F. Hubbard, Col. C. Cadle and Gen. Basil W. Duke.

The monument which will be unveiled was erected by the state of Minnesota in memory of the Minnesota soldiers who participated in the battle of Shiloh.

The party will arrive at Louisville at 7:15 p. m. April 8. Two hours later the start will be made for Danville, Ky., arriving there at 3:25 o'clock the following morning.

From Danville the party will go to Shiloh, arriving at Pittsburg Landing, Shiloh battlefield, at 8 o'clock in the morning of April 10.

DOGS WORK FOR A LIVING.

Eskimo Brutes' Training Begins in Puppyland, With 10 Miles a Day.

The Eskimo begins to train his dog for sledge work before it is a month old. One of the most interesting features of Eskimo villages are puppies tied to the pole of a tent. They pull on the rope with all their puppy strength in the effort to break away and join in the frolics of their elders.

Not until a dog bred for mail service is one year old is it put in training for the trail. It begins by running ten miles with the team, then it is dropped out. Next day it runs the same distance. Gradually the distance is increased until it reaches its fifteenth month of life, when it becomes part of the regular service. The life of a mail dog is from three to four years. No greater punishment can be inflicted than to lay a dog off from service. When unruly they are often threatened with a lay-off, and with almost human intelligence they seem to understand the disgrace it implies in the eyes of their fellow workers on the trail. All fight to be leaders. A constant spur to an ambitious dog is the "outsider," who will quickly take away the leadership not only in the mail service, but in teams maintained chiefly for the pleasure of the sport. The intelligence of the malamute is remarkable, its scent wonderful, its instinct, as a rule, unerring.

Some dogs are better trail followers than others, as some are better leaders. In a blizzard the best of them lose the trail, but invariably find it. When on the trail they never eat but once a day, then at the end of a journey. After feeding, like weary children, they fall asleep and are never quarrelsome. It takes on an average twenty pounds of food a day for a team of eleven dogs on a hard route.—March St. Nicholas.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

KENTUCKY

Prize Oration of Paducah High School, by Edward Mitchell.

Kentucky, to one of her native sons, is a synonym of all that is high, noble and inspiring. From the earliest periods of her existence, the name of Kentucky has been honored and revered at home and abroad.

Only a glance at her history is sufficient to make us appreciate her greatness; the perils that her pioneer settlers endured; her achievements in war and peace; her unparalleled growth in power down to the present is a record which could have been made only by a people of superior endowments.

In the early years of the eighteenth century, various hunting parties made their way through the Cumberland gap into the beautiful valley of the Cumberland river. These parties took back to Virginia, glowing accounts of the fertility of the soil, the boundless forests, and the fine rivers, "where the fondest dreams that ever played across the savage's brain might be realized." In the year 1774 a small party, encouraged by these fine reports, struggled across the mountains, and founded the little settlements of Boonesborough and Harrodsburg. These were the first settlements in Kentucky and were the beginning of our great State.

There were many perils and hardships to be endured the first few years of the life of these settlements, but those hardy, freedom-loving pioneers knew no such word as fear. No wonder that Kentucky at once took the first rank in the great sisterhood of states, for she was settled by such people as the Boones, the Harrods, the Breckenridges and the Todds; and the same liberty loving spirit, the same courage that inspired those brave settlers then, is felt by Kentuckians today. Probably they never dreamed that they were the founders of the greatest State, of the greatest nation on earth, but they were seeking the means of earning a livelihood and making homes for themselves and families. Truly, someone has said that these brave and daring men were the instruments of God in founding homes for a great and God-fearing people. Kentucky is the fifteenth State of our nation, being admitted to the Union in 1792.

But not alone in pioneer struggles is Kentucky preeminent, but in the wars that followed, her people showed the intrepid bravery and untiring energy.

There were no braver men living than those who left their homes and families to go and fight the savage Indians, constantly urged on by jealous England. They never wavered once from the call of duty, and what they thought to be right. In the year 1813, when a call was issued for 2,000 volunteers, from the State of Kentucky 4,000 or 5,000 crowded forward eager to defend their country's flag. At the battle of New Orleans, when our men were protected by only a slight wall of dirt and logs, those finely clad, well-armed troops, who had had experience in the war against Napoleon, those veterans of Waterloo, who had never been overcome by any nation on the globe, went down in ignominious defeat before the fire of the brave riflemen of Tennessee and Kentucky. When this war was over the soldiers returned to their homes, conscious that they had performed their duty to its fullest extent, and lived in comparative peace for about 35 years. But the war with Mexico again called America's sons to arms. In this war Kentucky was once more distinguished by the bravery of her soldiers. During the years that followed Kentucky became famous for her great plantations, her fine stock farms and her growing cities.

But when that war broke out, which will always be remembered as the greatest civil war in the annals of history, Kentucky state, of the once United States, which remained neutral. Other states declared themselves neutral at the beginning of the struggle, but Kentucky was the only one which remained true to her declaration.

While this war was in progress many battles were fought on Kentucky has advanced step by step, unover Kentucky emerged from the struggle with her plantations devastated, her homes destroyed and the fortunes of her people swept away. But with true Kentucky courage and energy they set about repairing their plantations and homes and regaining their lost fortunes; and in the years that have passed since the war Kentucky has advanced step by step, until now she is one of the greatest, the most progressive states, of an "Indissoluble Union of Indestructible States." Her cities are again prosperous, her plantations are again flourishing and her stock farms are her pride.

After the civil war the South did not progress very much until within the last decade, but now new life and energy have taken possession of Dixie Land, and Kentucky is leading all southern and central states in commercial, professional and literary lines. This glorious state is thought by many to be a place where lawlessness abides, but those illegal acts and depredations committed by mobs and mountaineers are condemned by the better class of people who stand now, as always, for all that is honorable and right.

Kentucky is noted for her great men. She may be called the mother of presidents, for it is a curious coincidence that the president of the Confederacy and the war president of the Union were native Kentuckians. She is the producer of great men: Clay, Lincoln, Breckenridge and Davis were Kentuckians, and today we have among this number: Henry Watterson, one of the greatest statesmen of the nation; Nathaniel Schlarer, another very loyal Kentuckian, a man who devoted his life to scientific research and teaching. In the literary field we have James Lane Allen, whose works are predicted to live long after Rudyard Kipling has been forgotten. And in the works of John Fox, Jr., we find portrayed the love he bears his "Old Kentucky Home."

Thus we see that Kentucky has always been first and foremost in all that is brave, honorable and right. Kentucky is old in American history, famous in poetry and song, and we sincerely hope the younger Kentuckians of today will make our future history as bright and illustrious as our past has been.

"Oh, Kentucky, my dear native soil, For whom my warmest wish to heaven is sent,

Long may thy hardy sons of justice

Be blest with health, and peace, and

And, oh, may heaven their simple

From luxuries, contagion, weak and

But on her children, fair and innocent,

May the warm sunshine of God's blessing

UNDER THE HAMMER

VALUABLE HOPKINS COUNTY COAL MINES SOLD.

Judge J. B. Hall Pays $71,500 for the Royal and John B. Brasher Buys Another.

Madisonville, Ky., April 8.—Two fine coal mines and mining property were sold at public auction here at the court house, and some lively bidding was indulged in. The property was that of the Chesley Coal company, which recently made an assignment. One of the mines, the Royal, in the suburbs of the city, was bought by Judge J. B. Hall in consideration of $71,500. The other mine, located at Oak Hill, this county, was purchased by John B. Brasher for the Brasher Coal company, paying $16,500. Mr. Brasher, it is said, sold his mine in Muhlenberg county for $136,000. Mr. Brasher stated that he would recognize the Mine Workers' union and that he would employ union men in his new mine. This will mean much to the striking miners in the county, as it will give employment to between 150 and 200 men who are out on strike. The price paid for the property was very reasonable. A large amount of other mining property of considerable value was sold and was bought in by different persons.

IN METROPOLIS

Mrs. Stanley, of Paducah, a former resident of Metropolis, visited friends here the latter part of the week.

James Lowe, a former citizen of Metropolis, but now of Paducah, spent Sunday with friends here.

George Trail has accepted a position with a lumber company at Dixon, Tenn., and has gone there to fill same. John Rush, of Jopka, Ill., visited his grandmother, Mrs. C. Rush, the latter part of the week.

Captain Copland visited in Paducah Sunday.

Fred Dean visited in Brookport Sunday.

Mr. Frazier, a former foreman of the Moline Spoke Works here, who has been at Seattle, Wash., for some months, returned home Sunday.

Percy Ingram and family, of Carbondale, are visiting Mrs. Eli Bruher, Mrs. Ingram's mother.

Mrs. Vest Dollar is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dollar.

Dick Green took in the sights in Paducah Saturday.

Mrs. S. Hester and daughters, Misses Grace and Bessie, are moving to Decatur, Ill., for the girls to attend school.

William Nelkamp has moved his family to Paducah to reside.

George Young attended to business in Brookport Monday.

Hiram Quante attended to business in Paducah Monday.

Mrs. Eliza English, of Paducah, is visiting her brother, Mr. Arthur Crider.

Miss Rifa Mizell, of Jopka, is visiting Miss Tona Copland.

John Evers, ex-sheriff of Massac county, now residing near Bandana, Ky., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Albert Davis.

Mrs. Ed Braur, one of Metropolis' most popular ladies, died Monday after a protracted illness of lung trouble.

"And you cheated your customer by telling him that the horse was not seven years old, when it was really seventeen?"

"I don't call that cheating, Judge; for instance, I'm not seven myself!"

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

Cheap Substitutes and "Just As Good As."

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low-grade, impure whiskey, which they tell you is as "good as Duffy's."

It is a cheap concoction and fraud, intended to deceive the people. Of course, when a remedy has been before the public so long, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in all the prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY has, imitations are bound to arise. But they can imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

Any firm that will sell imitation or substitution goods will sell impure drugs. The firm that is dishonest in one thing would not hesitate to be dishonest in another. Whenever you see imitation and substitution goods offered for sale by a firm, beware of anything and everything put up by that firm. You endanger your own life and the lives of your family and friends by dealing with them.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS! Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. A facsimile of the genuine bottle, full size, is printed here so that you may easily recognize it. It is our own patented bottle—round, amber colored, and with the name "Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey Company" blown into the glass. The trademark—the Old Chemist's Head—is on the label, and over the cork there is an engraved paper seal. Be certain this seal is not broken.

REFUSE IMITATIONS AND SUBSTITUTES

When you ask for DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY be sure you get the genuine which is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey containing medicinal, health-giving qualities. Imitations and substitutes, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand DUFFY'S, and be sure you get it. Be on your guard against refilled bottles.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey promotes health and longevity.

KEEPS THE OLD WHISKY—THE YOUNG STRONG

It is the only whiskey recognized by doctors everywhere as a family medicine.

The genuine is sold by all reliable druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, $1 a bottle. Write Dr. R. Curran, Consulting Physician, for free illustrated medical booklet and free advice. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

Up the bank by jumps the river continues to come, and this morning at 7 o'clock the gauge registered 36.1, a rise of 1.1 since yesterday morning. Since yesterday .04 of rain fell, and this morning the weather was cloudy, with the wind in the south.

With the orchestra playing, the Dick Fowler pulled out this morning at 8 o'clock for Cairo with a fine trip of passengers and freight. Yesterday the Fowler had 52 round trip passengers, 28 from Paducah and the remainder from Metropolis. From now on the passengers may dance as the orchestra will be kept on board until in the autumn.

The Joe Fowler arrived from Evansville today, and after unloading freight and reloading left again on her return trip.

The Clyde will leave at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Tennessee river instead of 6 o'clock, the regular hour. At Danville, Tenn., the Clyde will take on a party of 52 from Minnesota and carry them to the Shiloh battle ground, where the monument to the state's heroes will be unveiled. In the party are many distinguished men, including Governor J. A. Johnson. The party will return next Thursday.

The Royal arrived from Goleconda today at 11 o'clock with a good passenger and freight trip for a little packet.

The Saltillo will arrive at the wharf tonight from the Tennessee river. On board will be a large party from St. Louis, which has been to Shiloh battlefield.

The Bottle Owen made her usual trips over the river today, and had good business.

Wok was good today at the ways and docks, and despite the rising water the men were working.

The Helen Blair will come out of the Tennessee river tonight en route to St. Louis. The steamer has an excursion party on board.

The Annie Belle, a fine gasoline boat, that has been repaired here, left today for the Green river to run.

This morning the George Cowling arrived with a big trip from Metropolis.

While passing under the Cairo bridge yesterday afternoon the James Lee, en route from Memphis to Mound City, knocked both of her smoke stacks down. The boat will go on the ways at Mound City for repairs.

Dr. M. B. Adams to Jackson.

Frankfort, Ky., April 8.—Dr. M. B. Adams, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, and until a few months ago, president of the Kentucky Anti-Saloon League, has received a unanimous call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church at Jackson, Tenn. He has the matter under consideration and says that he may not make known his decision for a few weeks. Meanwhile the strongest pressure is being brought to bear upon him by his powerful congregation here, and his large number of friends and admirers over the state, to remain in Kentucky.

LAUNDERING - PLAITED BOSOM SHIRTS

Is the despair of many laundries, for without the bosom ironer, which we have, it is simply impossible to avoid that "hump." We have the only machine of this kind in West Kentucky—but the result is what interests you. It irons smoothly. The button holes or stud holes match. Negligee shirts with buttons are ironed perfectly and without injury. Plaited bosom shirts, when ironed by this machine, come through looking like new; the "hump" is missing.

THE HIDDEN SORE.

The interstate commerce commission has established by positive proof what everybody knew all along, that certain interests through the agency of holding companies manipulate the big interstate commerce carrying lines with a minority of the stock. While we should be uncharitable and blind to our own natural human shortcomings, if we did not give heed to the full freedom of individuals to acquire as much property and power as they can without interfering with the rights of others, and they have the intellect to manage; yet there is a menace in this sort of concentration, especially when the real owners of the controlling stock are operating under an alias. The shipping and consuming public and the stockholding public are interested.

The former is interested, because the same people are manipulating the stock of competing railroads and of the big trusts that ship over their lines, and they naturally may be expected to favor themselves as against competitors. The stockholders are interested, because the railroads under this system, instead of rivaling each other in economy of management and returns on their investments, pay most attention to manipulating the earnings in deals among themselves. Since they own both the material shipped and the carrier, it makes no difference to them from which source they derive the profit; but it does to the people, who buy railroad stock.

Here is another hidden industrial sore that the X-ray of publicity will heal.

ON THE RIGHT SIDE.

The Calloway County Times, of Murray, has arrayed itself on the side of law and order and speaks to its people in these words:

"A detachment of state militia has been sent to Calloway to assist the civil officers in putting an end to a state of lawlessness termed 'night riders,' which has developed in the northwest and northeast part of our county. While perhaps not exceeding 50 men have been engaged in this, and the Times is persuaded that most of these are thoughtless boys, still such things cannot exist in Calloway, and the solid conservative citizenship of our county will not stand for it—or support any such conduct.

"While we believe the authorities have the matter well in hand, and that no more depredations will occur in this county, still it behooves every good citizen to talk to the young men under his influence and tell them that these acts are felonious and that sooner or later the courts of justice will execute the laws relative thereto. These boys should be taught by their seniors that even the cutting of telephone wires is an offense punished with confinement in the state penitentiary. We do not believe that all the trouble in this county is based on tobacco, for everybody knows that there will not be an independent prize in this county another year, for the simple reason that all of the tobacco will and should be in the association. So with the association fight already won, we think a good deal of the trouble is of a personal nature. Suppose the aggrieved parties retaliate by killing some of those who have mistreated them—for many of their names are already known—to say nothing of confinement in the penitentiary. Would not this shock older and discreet citizenship?

"Gentlemen, you must warn the boys of the danger and foolishness of such conduct. It is the duty of all good people to talk against and discourage any and all violations of law. Remember that law and order is worth more than any cause, yea, worth more than everything else combined, for what will life and property be worth without law to protect them?"

A HUMBLE HERO.

Dispatches from Paducah say that Henry Jackson, of Christian county, says the Courier-Journal, with his wife and children, have arrived there after having tramped 100 miles, sleeping in the woods, in the hope of getting out of Kentucky. Mr. Jackson was visited by night riders and invited to join an expedition. He declined to consider the proposition. A second invitation was declined and he was ordered to leave the state or to prepare for death.

It requires exceptional courage for a poor man with five children and no funds to decline to join a mob when promises immunity on the one hand and threatens death upon the other. It seems that Henry Jackson had that courage. Without means of transportation he started, with his wife and his children, to walk to the Ohio river and escape to a state where the law, and not the lawless governors, sleeping in the fields and woods taxes the vitality of a healthy man in March or April. It is especially bad for babies. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and their children have arrived in Paducah after fourteen days of exposure, hunger and humiliation endured because Mr. Jackson was too much of a man to become an outlaw. His was a brand of courage something higher than that of the bravo who rides the road by night, protected by the size of the pack with which he prowls, and secure in the belief that the law holds no punishment for him or his fellows.

It is said in the news dispatches that some of the children may die as a result of the efforts of the Jacksons to reach the state line. It is difficult to believe that this affliction will be added to the sum of the sorrows of the Jackson family. Surely, enough has been suffered by them.

No more heroic figure has been disclosed to view during the "tobacco war" than that of the man with the hoe, driven into exile because of his refusal to become a criminal, and compelled to walk from Christian to McCracken. Had Kentucky a handful of heroes of this type in every county blighted by mob rule, the night riders would disband.

How many unwilling night riders have joined in raids upon the property of their neighbors because they could not refuse without taking the road to liberty that was pointed out to Mr. Jackson? This humble citizen of Christian county is the type of Kentucky that should be the tenant of Kentucky soil. A man who is willing to go into exile rather than to take part in violations of the law, and who takes his family out upon the road to tramp 100 miles, not because he is afraid to join a mob, but because he is fearless enough to refuse, at the price of any misfortune, to give up his manhood, is a good citizen and a man fitted to be the father of good citizens.

LAW AND ORDER IN KENTUCKY.

Those forces in modern society that make for law and order are working throughout the state. One manifestation is the formation of Law and Order leagues in different sections of the state. Another is a demand like that contained in the Springfield Sun written by the editor, Mr. Gore, one of the organizers of the Equity society, calling upon that society to make restoration of order its chief concern.

In the western part of the state the courts are acting under Judge Rees and Judge Wells in a manner to command the respect and confidence of the whole state.

At Winchester, Judge Benton speaks in unmistakable tones, and Judge Parker, in Fayette, is equally emphatic.

This means that the state, long patient, is at last aroused and lawlessness is to be suppressed by the due process of law.

It is easy for those outside of the disturbed section to express their horror and indignation at prevalent conditions, but it is a matter of grave difficulty for the representatives of the state on the bench and off of it, in a community largely terrorized and intimidated, to put in operation those processes upon which the state relies for the protection of its citizens.

The first duty of every citizen of the state is by his own course, by all he does and all that he says, to aid those officers who are striving to punish crime, to destroy the ascendancy of criminal organizations, to restore to every man, however humble, protection for his life and the control of his property.—Louisville Evening Post.

The Louisville Times says:

The MYSTERY

CHAPTER XV.

PERCY DARROW, unexpected, made his first visit to us the very next evening. He sauntered in with a Mexican corn husk cigarette between his lips, carrying a lantern, blew the light out and sat down with a careless greeting, as though he had seen us only the day before.

"Hullo, boys," said he, "been busy?"
"How are ye, sir?" replied Handy Solomon. "Good Lord, mates, look at that!"
Our eyes followed the direction of his forefinger. Against the dark blue of the evening sky to northward glowed a faint phosphorescence, arch shaped, from which shot, with pulsating regularity, long shafts of light. They beat almost to the zenith and back again a half dozen times; then the whole illumination disappeared with the suddenness of gas turned out.

"Now, I wonder what that might be," marvelled Thrackles.
"Northern lights," hazarded Pulz. "I've seen them almost like that in the Bering seas."

"Northern lights your eye!" sneered Handy Solomon. "You may have seen them in the Bering seas, but never this far south and in August, and you can kiss the book on that."

"What do you think, sir?" Thrackles inquired of the assistant.
"Devil's fire," replied Percy Darrow. "The island's a little queer. I've noticed it before."

"Devil's fire," repeated the nigger.

Darrow turned directly to him.

"Yes, devil's fire, and devils, too, for all I know, and certainly vampires. Did you ever hear of vampires, doctor?"

"No," growled the nigger.

"Well, they are women, wonderful, beautiful women. A man on a long voyage would just smack his lips to see them. They have shiny gray eyes and lips red as raspberries. When you meet them they talk with you and go home with you. And then when you're asleep they tear a little hole in your neck with their sharp claws, and they suck the blood with their red lips. When they aren't women they take the shape of big bats like birds."

He turned to me with so beautifully casual an air that I wanted to clap him on the back with the joy of it.

"By the way, Eugen, have you noticed those big bats the last few evenings over by the cliff? I can't make out in the dusk whether they are vampires or just plain bats." He directed his remarks again to the nigger. "Next time you see any of those big bats, doctor, just you notice close. If they have just plain black eyes they're all right, but if they have gray eyes, with red rims around 'em, they're vampires. I wish you'd let me know if you'd find out. It's interesting."

"Don't get me near no bats," growled the nigger.

"Where's Solover?" inquired Darrow.

"He stays aboard," I hastened to say. "Wants to keep an eye on the ship."

"That's laudable. What have you been doing?"

"We've been cleaning ship. Just finished yesterday evening."

"What next?"

"We were thinking of wrecking the Golden Horn."

"Quite right. Well, if you want any help with your engines or anything of the sort, call me."

He arose and began to light his lantern.

"I hope as how you're getting on well there above, sir?" ventured Handy Solomon insinuatingly.

"Very well, I thank you," replied Percy Darrow dryly. "Remember those vampires, doctor."

He swung the lantern and departed without further speech. We followed the spark of it until it disappeared in the arroyo.

Behind us belowered the sea. Over against us in the sky was the dull threatening glow of the volcano. About us were mysterious noises of crying birds, barking seals, rustling or rushing winds. I felt the thronging ghosts of all the old world's superstitions swirling madly behind us in the eddies that twisted the smoke of our fire.

We wrecked the Golden Horn. Forward was a rusted out donkey engine, which we took to pieces and put together again. It was no mean job, for all the running parts had to be cleaned smooth and with the exception of a rudimentary knowledge on the part of Pulz and Perdosa we were ignorant. In fact we should not have succeeded at all had it not been for Percy Darrow and his lantern. The first evening we took him over to the cliff's edge he laughed aloud.

"Jove, boys, how could you guess it all wrong?" he wondered.

With a few brief words he set us right, Pulz, Perdosa and I listening intently, the others indifferent in the hopelessness of being able to comprehend. Of course we went wrong again in our next day's experiments, but Darrow was down two or three times a week and gradually we edged toward a practical result.

His explanations consumed but a few moments. After they were finished we adjourned to the fire.

Thus we came gradually to a better acquaintance with the doctor's assistant. In many respects he remained always a puzzle to me. Certainly the men never knew how to take him. He was evidently not only unafraid of them, but genuinely indifferent to them.

Yet he displayed a certain interest in their needs and affairs. His practical

HOW TO INSURE A PERFECT COMPLEXION.

By DOROTHY VENN.

Any woman can have a soft, velvety skin and a glowing complexion if she will only give it a little attention and faithfully observe a few common sense rules.

The very first thing to remember is always to dry the skin thoroughly after washing. Nothing will so quickly cause rough skin and a tendency to "chapping" as leaving the face only half dry. The towel upon which the face is dried should never be relinquished until every drop of moisture has been absorbed. This is the first and most important of all rules for keeping one's complexion in good condition.

Perhaps the next thing to be observed with equal care is the temperature of the water. Except in very warm weather, do not use cold water. See that it is lukewarm, and where the skin is inclined to redness it is well to have it as hot as can be borne.

Every night and morning after washing and thoroughly drying face, neck and hands, use a wash which is made as follows: Obtain at a drug store, rose water, 2 ounces; cologne, spirits, 1 ounce; Epsom (skin food) 4 ounces.

Put the Epsom in a pint of hot water (not boiling), and after dissolved, strain and let cool. Then add the rose water and cologne spirits.

This will not only help to eradicate skin blemishes but will keep your complexion in perfect condition. This wash does away with the necessity for powder, as it keeps the skin smooth and soft and prevents it from becoming oily or shiny.

My knowledge was enormous. I think I have told you of the completeness of his arrangements. Everything had been foreseen from grindstones to gas lamps. The same quality of concrete speculation showed him what we lacked in our own lives.

There was, as you remember, the matter of Handy Solomon's steel claw. He showed Thrackles a kind of lantern knot that deep sea person had never used. He taught Captain Selover how to make soft soap out of one species of seaweed. He initiated in the art of fishing with a white bone lure. Our camp itself he reconstructed on scientific lines so that we enjoyed less aromatic smoke and more palatable dinner. And all of it he did unobtrusively, as though his ideas were almost too obvious to need communication.

We became in a manner intimate with him. He guyed the men in his indolent fashion, playing on their credulity, their good nature, even their forbearance. They alternately grinned and scowled. He left always a confused impression, so that no one really knew whether he cherished rancor against Percy Darrow or kindly feeling.

The nigger was Darrow's especial prey. The assistant had early discovered that the cook was given to signs, omens and superstitions.

OLD SWEETHEARTS CAN'T WED.

Guardian Says Nay When Woman of Sixty Claims Man of Seventy—Seven.

Lancaster, Pa.—With her trousseau all ready, Mrs. Sarah St. Claire, sixty years old, finds in the law a bar to her marriage with her girlhood sweetheart.

A few days ago she went to Kokomo, Ind., to wed Dr. Alexander C. Freeman, seventy-seven years old. Mrs. St. Claire had hoped that the wedding would occur immediately, but she found the prospective bridegroom in charge of a guardian, who refused to allow him to marry.

Thereupon, wedding clothes and all, Mrs. St. Claire appealed to the court for help.

Mrs. St. Claire is at Kokomo, declaring that she will wait days, even months, until the obstacles are removed.

BOER LEADER AN AMERICAN.

Gen. B. J. Viljoen is Granted Citizenship Papers.

Santa Fe, N. M., April 8.—Gen. Benjamin Johannes Viljoen, the famous Boer leader, was granted citizenship papers by Judge Parker at Las Cruces. He is the leader of the Boer colony that has been established at St. Chamberline, in the Mesilla Valley. Dona Ana county. Col. W. J. Viljoen, Capt. N. J. Vangass, the one-armed chief of scouts, and other eminent Boer leaders are members of the colony.

Must Ride Like White Folks.

Washington, April 8.—Roosevelt's letter to the attorney general about the Jim Crow law in the south says the negroes must ride just like white people. He censures the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway for the neglect of negro coaches.

"You wouldn't believe this possible, but still—"

"I'll believe anything possible," interrupted the sour citizen. "I've bought a little law in my time."

MISS MAY MILBURN.....5601
MISS ALMA ADAMS.....5104
Miss Gertrude Hollowell.....4800
Miss Maggie Coyle.....4650
Miss Ruby Canada.....4338
Miss Verna t. John.....3485
Miss Marie Brooks.....3356
Miss Bonnie Prince.....1648
Miss Lizzie Herzog.....1250
Miss Sarah Miller.....850
Miss Armstrong.....650

The next count will be made Saturday morning.

Primary on Election Day.

Mayfield, Ky., April 8.—H. A. Coulter, county chairman, is preparing a call for the Democratic committee to meet in Mayfield April 20 to name a date for holding the primary for county offices. There is scarcely any doubt but what the primary will be held on the general election day in November.

Will Spare the Tree.

Washington, April 8.—By a ye and nay vote of 133 to 131 the advocates of a proposition to place the statue of General Grant in the ellipse back of the white house instead of in the botanic gardens, and thus cause the removal of the Crittenden and Beck trees, failed to secure the necessary two-thirds vote in the house and the bill remains on the calendar. The vote shows that a majority of the members oppose the plan of the memorial commissioners, but the parliamentary procedure made a two-thirds vote necessary, and upon this they lost. As the machinery for moving the trees has arrived at the botanic gardens, it is assumed that before the question can be taken up again in the house the work of deconstruction will have been commenced. The subject of the removal of the trees gave inspiration for a dozen or so one-minute speeches.

TUGBOATS PURSUE STEERS.

Droves Swim in East River After the Barge Goes Down.

New York, April 8.—A fleet of tug boats pursuing a drove of wild Texas steers swimming in the East river was the exciting and unusual spectacle witnessed by several hundred persons today.

A Lehigh Valley float carrying a car load of thirty steers and several cars loaded with coal, sprang a leak in the East river and sank. Before it went down the deckhands opened the doors and the steers made a dash for safety. About fifteen of them got clear.

A lively chase ensued. Passing tugs joined the pursuit and several unsuccessful attempts were made to lasso the swimming steers, several of which swam a long distance up the river before they were captured. Others were drowned.

HORNE PLACED IN ASYLUM.

Newspaper Man Expected to Be Released Soon.

St. Joseph, Mo., April 8.—Gen. R. C. Horne, who killed Editor H. J. Groves, of Kansas City, arrived in St. Joseph this evening and was taken directly to State Hospital for the Insane, No. 2. He was placed in ward No. 41, which is known as "the convalescent ward."

General Horne was in excellent condition and expressed the belief that his stay at the hospital will be short. His being placed in the convalescent ward means that this can be made possible within a short while.

ATTACK NATIVE STAFF IN AMERICAN CONSULATE.

Mukdon, April 8.—The Japanese entered the American consulate and brutally attacked the native staff in revenge for a private spite. Consul General Straight made a requisition on the Chinese police, and the Japanese were arrested and taken to the Japanese consulate. No apology has yet been offered, and it is probable that the matter will be made a subject of diplomatic action.

MORE INDICTMENTS IN PATENT OFFICE SCANDAL.

Washington, April 8.—In connection with the recently-divulged patent office scandal three new indictments were reported by the local grand jury against N. W. Barton, a former assistant examiner; Henry E. Everding, a patent attorney of Philadelphia, and John A. Heany, an inventor, of York, Pa., all of whom are at liberty under $10,000 bonds to answer the indictments returned in February.

McCREERY IS NEAR DEATH.

Man Accidentally Shot by Congressman Hefflin Develops Lockjaw.

Washington, April 8.—Thomas McCreery, the New York horseman, accidentally shot by Congressman J. Thomas Hefflin, of Alabama, a few days ago, is in a serious condition. He was operated on for lockjaw this afternoon as the only hope of saving his life.

Methodist Preachers' Meeting.

The Methodist preachers held their regular meeting at Broadway church Tuesday, the Rev. J. W. Blackard, D. D., presiding. The reports of the city pastors and of the Paducah and Reidsland circuits showed that all were hard at work and making progress. The social, moral and temporal interest of their people is upon their hearts, and they are planning and working to meet the needs of the present condition with a good hope of ultimate success. The subjects for discussion during next month are: "The Preacher's Work and Responsibility to Human Society," led by Rev. T. J. Owen, of Reidsland circuit. "The Laymen's Movement," led by Rev. G. W. Banks, of the Trimble Street church, May 5.

Last Night 1010 Yards of Silk

Here is an illustration of the tremendous power of advertising which will interest every man who has anything to sell:

Last night when The Sun went to press E. Guthrie Co. had a thousand and ten yards of a certain kind of silk on their shelves. As a special for today they offered it at 15c a yard, in a small announcement in The Sun.

The store opened at 7:30 this morning. At 10 o'clock every thread of the silk was gone. A strong testimonial to the values you say? Yes, but how many people would have known of them if they hadn't been advertised?

REESE FISHER IS SLIGHTLY BETTER ---ASSAILANT HELD

Benton, Ky., April 8. (Special).—Reese Fisher, the young man who was stabbed last night in a brawl by Lon Holley, is so much improved this afternoon that his physician entertains hope of his recovery. He has one knife stab in his side, ranging toward his heart, and two in the back, and a scratch on the shoulder. Holley is in jail. John Hampton and Elvis Henson, his companions, who were locked up last night, were released today, and Holley will have his preliminary this afternoon. The men were touring Benton with a cab full of whisky, and Mrs. Hampton removed the liquor from the rig, while they were out. They went into the house to get it, when the trouble started. It is said the attack was unprovoked. Holley has been in trouble before, and had a fight Monday night. Fisher is the son of the late County Judge J. M. Fisher, a brother of City Attorney John Fisher, and the son-in-law of Dr. B. T. Hall, of Paducah. He is about 30 years old. Holley is 26 years old, and the son of Andrew Holley.

On being told that there was only the slightest chance for his recovery, Reese Fisher made his dying statement this morning to the doctors. He said he was sober and that Lonnie Holly did the cutting without provocation. Trouble has existed between the men for some time, and Fisher says Holly advanced on him yesterday afternoon and with an oath said, "I have you where I want you now." Fisher has distributed his property to his relatives. Fisher exonerated every one but Holly.

MURDER OR SUICIDE?

Springfield, Mo., April 8.—Judge J. A. Frink, a prominent attorney, died this morning without regaining consciousness, having been found at midnight mortally wounded by a revolver shot. Near by the body was an empty purse, which the family says had contained $100. A revolver with one chamber empty was near the body. The police say it looks like suicide, but the family say it was highwaymen.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Cairo Girl to Make Debut in Musical Comedy.

The following complimentary notice of Miss Lina Woodward, of Cairo, from the Cairo Bulletin, will be of interest here, where Miss Woodward has frequently visited Mrs. Charles Kiger and sisters, and her delightful voice has given great pleasure:

"The friends of Miss Lina Woodward, of this city, will be greatly interested to learn that she has secured an engagement with George Cohan, the noted comedian, and has been assigned to a part in his new musical comedy, 'The Yankee Prince,' which opened in Hartford, Conn., last week. The company is playing this week in Philadelphia and from there will go to New York to play for the entire summer at the Knickerbocker theater. Miss Woodward is a daughter of Mrs. Musa Woodward, of Eighth street, and was born and reared in Cairo. She has been studying music in Chicago for the past two years and went to New York last fall to continue her study. She is studying with Madame Zeigler and Max Treumann, two noted teachers of voice culture, and while the company is in the city this summer she will continue her work as a student. Miss Woodward has a contralto voice of great power and unusual quality. Her energy and perseverance have won her the lucrative position she has secured and her Cairo friends will be pleased to learn of this recognition of her talents."

April has been an unusually successful month. Captain Reed arrived last night from Cairo, where he accepted 12 recruits for the army.

Sergeant Nathan Brandon, of the Princeton district, is in the city and will leave tomorrow to advertise the district. Some of the recruits have gone to Jefferson barracks, Mo., and the remainder will leave this evening to receive preliminary training.

RICH MAN'S SONS RACE DEATH.

Millionaire Spaulding's Boys Speed Over Continent to See End.

Santa Barbara, Cal., April 8.—Three sons of Edward R. Spaulding, the millionaire Buffalo banker, are speeding to this place as fast as steam will carry them in a race with death. They have been attending universities at Buffalo, Yale and in Florida, and are rushing to Santa Barbara in the hope of seeing their father again before he dies.

That the aged millionaire can hardly recover is conceded. The injuries he sustained when he fell from his buggy have left him in a state of coma, from which he is aroused to semi-consciousness only at rare intervals. The three physicians fear erysipelas.

COMMITTEE AGREES ON INTERSTATE LIQUOR BILL.

Washington, April 8.—After extended hearings and exhaustive arguments by the members of the senate committee on judiciary, that committee agreed upon a bill dealing with the shipment of liquors from one state or territory to another state or territory.

The measure will be reported by Senator Knox, who was chairman of the sub-committee which conducted the hearings. It is comparatively simple in form, providing that there shall be no "collect on delivery" packages of liquor shipped in interstate commerce where fictitious names are used, and that the name of the consignor and consignee shall be stated plainly.

The provision is designed to eliminate the practice of railroad and express agents acting as agents for liquor houses.

MRS. HAROLD MCCORMICK FLEES TO NEW YORK CITY.

New York, April 8.—Hoping to escape here a mysterious persecution which has been making her life in Chicago miserable, Mrs. Harold McCormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, came to this city with her children and went to a private and secluded suite in the Hotel Manhattan. "Black hand" letters and other cranks missives have literally been pouring into the McCormick house in Chicago for months. The writers sometimes threatened to kidnap the children unless great sums of money were turned over to them. Again, they vowed their intention of dynamiting the McCormick home and blowing to pieces every one within.

Evans Is Better.

Paso Robles, April 8.—Admiral Evans is much better. If the improvement continues he can join the fleet at San Francisco. His son today wheeled him around the town. He shook hands with the townsfolk.

The Tame Turkey.

Mr. Polk Miller of Richmond blew into the editorial office of the Almanack like a fresh breeze from the south a few days ago and was promptly asked, of course, for the latest dark story in Virginia. He said it was about substituting a wild turkey for a tame turkey. One of his friends bought a turkey from old Uncle Ephriam and asked him, in making the purchase, if it was a tame turkey.

"Oh, yais sir, it's a tame turkey o' right."

"Now Ephriam, are you sure it's a tame turkey?"

"Oh, yais sir, dere's no so't o' doubt 'bout dat. It's a tame turkey o' right."

He consequently bought the turkey, and a day or two later when eating it he came across several shot. Later on when he met old Ephriam on the street, he said: "Well, Ephriam, you told me that was a tame turkey, but I found one shot in it when I was eating it."

"Oh, dat war a tame turkey o' right," was Uncle Ephriam's reiterated rejoinder, "but de fac' is, boss, I's gwine to tell yer in confidence, dat dem ere shot was intended for me."—Advertiser's Almanack, 1908.

REPAIR BRIDGE OF ISLAND CREEK

Have Not Sufficient Funds For New One at Fourth Street.

Merchants Want Down Town Alley Paved With Brick and It Is Recommended.

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS

Repairs will be made to the bridge over Island creek at Fourth street instead of the erection of a new bridge at present, as the board of public works decided last night in regular session. The floor of the bridge is in such bad condition that constant repairs have to be made, and on the recommendation of City Engineer Washington, a practical bridge may be secured to make the improvements. Bids will be asked for, but the board did not decide whether to use heart pine or oak. The iron rod on the bridge need to be tightened to prevent it from swaying, and the new floor is needed badly.

Work will be begun at once on Broadway and Jefferson street from Ninth street to Eleventh street. Bid for the construction of the street with asphalt, brick and bitumastic will be secured, and all bids will be opened May 12. All the ordinances have been passed and the work is ready to let as soon as bids are received, and sewer connections are all made.

The bad condition of Broadway east of Third street was discussed but nothing definite was done. The street has many bad holes, but to fill the holes with new bricks would make a bump in the street, and on the recommendation of City Engineer Washington nothing was done, as in a year the street will have to be repaved.

Merchants on Broadway between Third and Second streets had a letter before the board, asking that in improvements be made to the alley in the rear of the buildings. The alley is paved with cobble stones, and water stands between them. All the members of the board were unanimous for an improvement and will ask the city for an ordinance making the improvement with brick. On reconstruction of alleys the property owners pay half of the cost and the city half.

Contracts for the graveling of Clark street, between Tenth street and Eleventh street, and for Twenty-second street, and Twenty-third street, in Glenwood, have been let to Contractor Ed Terrell, but the work has never progressed far, and as the time limit has expired the board notified Mr. Terrell his contract has been abrogated. If possible the board will secure bid under the same ordinance, and have the work begun at once, as the property owners on the streets have tried to get the improvements for a year.

Owners of gravel pits near the city desire to show the board the advantages of their gravel, and next Friday morning the board with City Engineer Washington and Street Inspector Bell, will visit all of the gravel pits in President Study's automobile, and see the run of the gravel in each pit.

A new driving belt is needed at the city light plant, and Superintendent J. O. Keebler was ordered to secure bids. The cost will be about $250. The Casualty Company of America filed a report that the company has inspected the boilers at the light department, and both were found in good condition.

Property owners on Jefferson street between Twelfth street and Thirteenth street want an alley, but one property owner has not dedicated property and nothing can be done at present.

The complaint of Hugh Burrow and Ed Tyree, of drainage water passing over private property on South Fourth street was brought up, and a soon as good weather is had the water will be turned aside.

The street at Farley Place need grading and graveling, and the board decided to ask the council for the ordinance.

A local firm asked that concrete piping be used by the city, but the motion of Mr. Katterjohn to continue the use of the present pipe was passed unanimously.

The pay roll of the street, light and sewer departments were allowed for the two weeks.

Permission was granted the Postal Telegraph company to erect a "barrel" sign at Second street and Broadway. The sign will be around the corner of the building and must not protrude more than 5 inches over the sidewalk, and will be four feet high. Street Inspector Bell was ordered to notify Eli Guthrie & company that a wooden sign across the sidewalk must come down, because no permission has been granted.

The Anchor Paving and Roofing company, of Evansville, notified the board that improvements would be made in the spring. Attention will be called to the contractor of the sidewalk and curbing on South Third street, and improvements made. Several holes are in the brick street on South Third street, between Jefferson street and Kentucky avenue, and the contractor will be notified of them.

President Rudy and Messrs. F. W. Katterjohn and Louis Kolb were present last, and the next meeting of the board will be held in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. The evening hour is inconvenient for the board and the meeting time was changed.

CENTENARY OF ESTABLISHMENT OF THE DIOCESE OF LOUISVILLE IS OBSERVED

Catholics Probably Will Have Celebration at Date to be Fixed Later.

Catholics throughout the United States, and more especially of that section of the country known as the middle west, do reverence today in honor of the centenary of the erection of the diocese of Louisville, the history of which is studded with deeds of heroism and devotion. It is known as the mother diocese of the west.

It was in the year 1807 that a movement was instituted by Bishop Carroll toward a division of the episcopal authority in the United States, and he wrote to the Holy See, suggesting the erection of four additional sees in this country, one to be located in Boston, one in New York, one in Philadelphia and one in Bardonia. This suggestion by Bishop Carroll was followed by another suggestion, in which he recommended a person for the occupancy of the see at Bardonia. All of the suggestions and recommendations of Bishop Carroll were adopted by Rome, and the election of the Rt. Rev. Benedict Joseph Flaget as first bishop of the diocese, was announced on April 8, 1808. Previous to the erection of the see at Bardonia and the other three erected in the east at the same time all of the Catholics of the United States were under the jurisdiction of the diocese of Baltimore, and following the erection of the four additional sees, Baltimore was created an archdiocese. The bulls for the consecration of Bishop-elect Flaget and the others recommended by Bishop Carroll, reached the latter in September, 1808, but due to the torts later made by the Rev. Father Flaget, to prevent his election and elevation to the important post, he was not consecrated until November 1, 1810.

Bishop Flaget passed six years of his episcopal life in Kentucky before any effort was made by him looking to a suitable and properly appointed cathedral to the diocese. This was due to the fact that Bishop Flaget was without resources himself, and haggard with the care of a people with whom competency was a condition of the future, and he did not feel warranted in taxing them for even so much-needed an object. In 1817, however, he authorized subscriptions to be made up and when he work of construction of the cathedral had begun the sum of $14,000 had been raised. The day fixed for the consecration of the cathedral was August 8, 1819, and it was the most interesting and important event that had ever taken place up to that time of the sees.

For the first two years after the removal of the see of Louisville the city of episcopal visitation of the churches of the diocese was performed by the Rev. Father Guy Ignatius Chabrat, with occasional assistance from Bishop Flaget. The first public official act of Dr. Flaget as the consecration of his third coadjutor, the Right Rev. Martin John Spalding, on September 10, 1848, and a beautiful marble tablet erected in his memory by Bishop Spalding adorns the sanctuary wall of the cathedral of the Assumption in Louisville.

Bishop Flaget was born in France in November 7, 1763, and died on February 11, 1850, at the age of 87 years, having served as bishop of the diocese for forty years.

Six Bishops of Diocese.

Since the erection of the diocese of Louisville one hundred years ago six relates, including the present occupant of the see, the Rt. Rev. William George McCloskey, have exercised spiritual jurisdiction in the diocese. Of this number four have been Frenchmen, and one a Kentuckian. Here were, in the order of their consecration and of their demise or resignation, as follows: First, the Rt. Rev. Benedict Joseph Flaget, consecrated in 1810, died in 1850; second, the Rt. Rev. John B. David, coadjutor, consecrated in 1819, died in 1841; third, the Rt. Rev. Guy Ignatius Chabrat, coadjutor, consecrated in 1834, resigned in 1847; fourth, the Rt. Rev. Martin John Spalding, coadjutor, consecrated in 1848, succeeded to the bishopric in 1850, transferred to the arch-episcopal see of Baltimore in 1864, died in 1872; fifth, the Rt. Rev. Peter Joseph LaVallie, consecrated in 1865, died in 1867.

The Rt. Rev. William George McCloskey was consecrated bishop of the diocese on May 24, 1868, and has, therefore, exercised spiritual jurisdiction in the diocese for forty years. Bishop McCloskey has already served the same number of years as bishop of the diocese as did Bishop Flaget.

the first bishop, and he is now about the same age as was Bishop Flaget when called to his final rest.

May Celebrate Later.

The fact that the centenary of the diocese of Louisville occurs during Passion week will preclude any festivities being indulged in in celebration of the event, but it is likely that Bishop McCloskey will set apart a date later in the year when the event will be observed with appropriate exercises. In New York and Philadelphia, where the centenary of the diocese occurs the same time as in the diocese of Louisville, special preparations are being made to celebrate the event, and in Boston, the seat of the other see, erected also on the same date, preparations will be made for celebration at some date during the year. At a meeting held last week in New York Archbishop Farley outlined the program of religious and civic celebrations to be held there in honor of the event during the week beginning Tuesday, April 28.

William Tell Fatal.

Hopkinsville, Ky., April 8.—While testing their marksmanship after the manner of William Tell, Elvin Summers, aged 11 years, killed Wallace Franklin, a playmate, aged 13 years, in Crittenden county. The boys had rifles, and Franklin had shot over Summer's head. When the younger boy attempted the feat the bullet pierced Franklin's brain. It is feared that Summers may lose his mind.

The suspected may happen unexpectedly.

SEVEN CENT CUT IN COUNTY TAX

Fiscal Court Takes Two More Cents of Levy Later.

Five New Concrete Bridges Ordered Built in McCracken County This Summer.

SOME OF ACCOUNTS ALLOWED.

The road supervisor was instructed to furnish the fiscal court an estimate of the probable cost of graveling the Woodville and Lavelleville roads from the point where the gravel now ceases to the county line. The supervisor was told not to make any permanent improvements on roads until ordered by the court.

The improvements ordered were five bridges to be built at an aggregate cost, not to exceed $8,500. All will be built of concrete. One will be built across Island creek on the Husbands road, one three miles from Paducah on the Blandville road, one on the Woodville road 18 miles from Paducah and another near Kossing ten on the Ogden Landing road. The supervisor was ordered to grade every dirt road and repair all culverts that are in bad order.

After the county tax rate had been fixed at 70 cents on the $100 worth of property at the morning session of the fiscal court yesterday, the question was reconsidered before the board adjourned and two cents taken off, bringing the tax rate to 68 cents, a reduction of 7 cents from last year. The reduction was made by taking one cent each off the levy for roads and bridge fund and the county levy making the road levy 20 cents, county levy 20 cents, sinking fund 18 cents, pauper levy 10 cents. The amount at which the tax rate was finally fixed is but two cents more than was recommended by Judge Lightfoot. Two of the magistrates, Bleich and Broadfoot, voted for the 66 cent rate recommended by the judge.

The following accounts were allowed:

Kate Slevs for Emma Simmons, $15; W. T. Byrd for Mrs. Magee, $20; W. M. Boldry, for Jane Counts, $15; Ellen Campbell for idiot child, $18; John Thompson for Mrs. Burns, $15; M. B. Tapp for Rufus Story, $10; Theodore Luttrell for Pearl Smith, $18; Dennis Champy for Angelina Carrigan, $15; Mary B. Harper for Isaac Hawkins, $12; A. N. Sears for Ila Lusher, $12; A. N. Sears for Sallo Lusher, $15; L. Edgington for Mrs. Bearden, $21; Mr. Rudd for Jane Borders, $18; W. C. Gipson for A. Whiteledge and wife, $25; Thomas Humphrey, $30; Mrs. Rudolph, $12; George Daugherty for Mrs. Oakley, $15; Jake Biederman Grocery company, $27.30; Newt, Gibson, $6.50; Standard Oil company, $3; Fairbanks-Morse company, $45.95; Houser Brothers, $16; Broadfoot Bros., $23.80; U. G. Guillet, $13; Charles Emery, $5; Iverson & Wallace, $1.25; T. Niemczyk, $26; Lendler & Lydon, $2.75; G. E. Rouse & company, $29.50; W. A. Thompson, $317.48; W. B. McPherson, $7.40.

The allowances made out of the county levy were: David J. Levy, $19.85; Jackson Foundry and Machine company, $3; Jake Biederman Grocery company, $19.85; Ed Hanman, $45.60; Paducah Water company, $55.16; Pittsburg Coal company, $13.72; Henry A. Petter, $3.30; Noble & Yelzer, $19.12; Broadfoot Bros., $1.80; Mrs. George, $2; West Kentucky Coal company, $54.30; James Baker, county jailer, $143.40; Frank Baker, $114; East Tennessee Telephone company, $7.81; Paducah Light and Power company, $13.80; A. N. Gipson, $9; Circuit Clerk Joe A. Miller, $12.60; Katterjohn & Dalby, $202.50.

Out of the road and bridge fund F. P. Gholson was allowed $5.50 and E. B. Johnson, $122.50.

Good Soldiers.

Concerning the soldiers at Murray the Calloway Times says: "They are conducting themselves very nicely, and are patrolling the country districts at night where the night riders have been doing their work. Circuit court convenes next Monday, and Judge Cook told a Times man that he would call special attention of the grand jurors to the Ku-Klux law and direct a united effort to bring the violators to just punishment."

Neighborhood Favorite.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Mo., speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alternative tonic is sold under guarantee at all druggists.

STONE-FOLK FIGHT WARMS.

Governor's Followers Belt the Valley Township Convention.

De Soto, Mo., April 8.—The Folk Stone fight in Jefferson county is waxing warm. Township conventions were held in the various townships and from reports obtainable the Folk men were pretty badly "rolled" in the selection of delegates. At the convention which is to be held in Hillsboro 136 delegates will be present, and from present indications it will be one of the most stormy conventions ever held in Jefferson county. The Stone men had things their own way in Valle township and selected twenty-nine delegates to the county convention. Dr. A. H. Hamel, president of the state board of health, whose home is in this city, with a number of his friends, bolted the convention and walked out.

Former Congressman Sam Byrnes, with William Welch, a former appointee of Governor Folk, are leading the Stone forces, while Dr. W. E. Gibson, representative of Jefferson county, P. P. Hinchey, chairman of the state board of commissioners of asylum No. 4, and Dr. A. H. Hamel are looking after Mr. Folk's interests.

The Jumping Off Place.

"Consumption had me in its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery; and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimesland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia New Discovery is supreme, 50c and $1.00 at all druggists. Trial bottle free.

THREE STITCHES IN HEART.

New York Man Still Lives and Is Expected to Survive.

New York, April 8.—With three stitches in his heart, twelve stitches in the pericardium and two ribs removed, Robert Inglis, 23 years old, of Yonkers, is making a fight for life in St. Joseph's hospital in that city. In an altercation in the street with a Pole early today, Inglis was stabbed in the heart with a knife. The surgeons say they believe he will survive the injury and the operation.

Inglis conversed with other patients in the surgical ward.

Wink—"He didn't use to dodge his rich relatives, but he does now."

Bink—"Does, eh? And as poor as he is?"

Wink—"Sure. All his rich relatives have bought automobiles."—Chicago Daily News.

Pain Weakens

Headache, rheumatism, neuralgia, or pains of any nature weaken the system—they are a strain upon the nerves. Almost instant relief can be obtained by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and without any bad after-effects. Take one on first indication of an attack—it will ward it off. They are a pleasant little tablet, sold by druggists everywhere, 25 doses 25 cents; never sold in bulk.

"I was subject to constant headaches for a period of four years. At times I was almost unfitted for the work in which I am engaged, that of station agent. Through the advice of a friend I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and the result has been that I have entirely eradicated my system of those continuous headaches that follow a continual mental strain. They have done for me all that is claimed for them."

WANT LID OFF DANCING.

Conference Asked Elimination of Amusement Clause.

New York, April 8.—The New York Methodist conference adopted the resolution asking for the elimination of clause No. 248 of the book of discipline, which prohibits card playing, theaters, dancing and other amusements. The question will now come before the general conference in the shape of a recommendation at the request of the New York conference. It is expected, however, that the resolution will not pass the general conference without some discussion and voting against it. The conference, by a vote of 116 to 46, went on record today as favoring a return to the system of limited pastorate that existed in the church for more than a century until a few years ago.

Suffering and Dollars Saved.

E. S. Loper, of Martilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at all drug gists.

BOYCOTT AGAINST JAPAN.

Feeling Aroused by Tatsu Maru Incident Spreading.

Canton, April 8.—The boycott against the Japanese, arising out of the trouble between Japan and China over the seizure and subsequent release of the Tatsu Maru, is spreading rapidly. Mass meetings have been held with the object of impressing upon the Chinese the necessity of making the boycott of Japanese products and manufactures as far-reaching as possible. Despite a torrential rain, more than a thousand women dressed in white, as an emblem of mourning, attended a meeting held for this purpose, speeches being made denouncing everything that pertained to Japan.

The girls wanted me to come to help fill up.

SAVE MONEY ON YOUR MAGAZINES

It is a great deal cheaper to place annual subscriptions to several magazines at the same time and order them all together from us, than it is to buy the same magazines singly or subscribe to them separately. Combination club offers are now made by which subscribers to several magazines can secure bargain prices, sometimes getting three or four magazines for the price of one or two. Subscriptions may be sent to different addresses, if desired, and may begin with any month. Let us know what magazines you are taking now or what magazines you want to take next year, and we will quote the combination price, showing saving to be effected.

THEATRICAL NOTES

At The Kentucky.

The Mills company received a large patronage last night regardless of the rain to witness the great labor drama "Man's Inhumanity." The play was well received and all parts were well played, which is one of the good features of this company. A request was made to the manager to repeat the play Saturday night. Tonight a strong sensational drama "Under Southern Moss," will be presented. Like all southern dramas it is sensational, plenty of good comedy and a very pleasing production, and as it deals with life in the mountains of Tennessee, of which much is already known, there will no doubt be a large house. Today and Saturday special matinees.

Crystal Theater.

The bill offered at the Crystal this week is a deviation in variety from that which has been on for several weeks and it is admitted by those who have attended that this week's bill furnishes that part of "variety" the spice of life, which equals the desert course of a well chosen formal dinner.

Hale and Hardy are slated as the "human talking machines," and they are rightly billed. Their act consists of fifteen minutes of singing and talking.

Next come the Rich Duo, Jack and Miss Agnes. Miss Rich is a vivacious comely little woman who possesses that power which a few members of her sex have, the ability to be funny. No less clever is her team mate, Jack Rich.

The great Heighley in a high-class slack wire act, stepping to beautiful strains of "L. Estudantina" waltz and performing some remarkable feats.

Moving pictures are presented some time before the vaudeville performance is finished to allow the change of stage setting.

RESULTS OF LOCAL OPTION CONTESTS

Franklin County Dry.

Benton, Ill., April 8.—Each of the 12 townships in Franklin county went dry with the exception of Goode township. Benton's dry majority was 270.

Rock Island Wet.

Rock Island, Ill., April 8.—Rock Island went wet, 1,791 majority. The county district where saloons have been generally went wet by small majorities.

Centralia Township Wet.

Centralia, Ill., April 8.—Centralia township went wet by a majority of 21. Centralia is the only town in Marion county going wet. Salem, Kinmundy, Odin and Sandoval voted out the saloons.

Danville Retains Saloons.

Danville, Ill., April 8.—Danville township containing 92 saloons, voted against local option. Georgetown township, the only other township in Vermillion county in which local option was at issue, went dry.

Decatur Dry.

Decatur, Ill., April 8.—Decatur and half of the sixteen townships of Macon county heard from voted dry.

Pontiac Goes Dry.

Pontiac, Ill., April 8.—Every town in Livingston county voted against saloons excepting Dwight, Chatsworth, Flanagan and Strawn. This city went dry.

Wet by One Vote.

Dixon, Ill., April 8.—Dixon dry by 106 votes. Sterling wet by one vote.

67 Put Out of Business.

Aurora, Ill., April 8.—Saloons won in Aurora, Elgin, Geneva, Batavia,

Black Berry and St. Charles. The other principal towns in Kane county went dry. Sixty-seven saloons were put out of business.

Kankakee Wet.

Kankakee, Ill., April 8.—Kankakee county went wet by a majority of 1,213. Every township in the county where they had saloons went wet.

The Vote at Florence.

Joliet, Ill., April 8.—Joliet township went wet by 2,474 majority. Four townships voted saloons out and three remain wet. The Florence vote is a tie.

Lincoln, Neb., Stays Wet.

Lincoln, Neb., April 8.—Lincoln voted to retain saloons by 300 majority.

Results in Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 8.—David S. Rose, Democratic candidate for mayor of Milwaukee was elected with a plurality of 3,000 over Emil Siedel, Social Democrat.

Lafollette delegates elected in other districts are:

Third—Duncan McGregor and Julius Diehmar.

Fourth—Fred C. Lorenz, Wm. H. Kieckhefer.

Fifth—William R. Knelland, Henry Lockney.

Ninth—Samuel H. Cady, B. C. Wolter.

Eleventh—Samuel J. Bradford and John T. Murphy.

Marionette voted for license by a majority of 1,000. Menomine, Wausaukee, Peshtigo carried for license and Wheeler voted dry. The Republicans elected a mayor at Appleton and Superior, while the Democrats elected heads of the city ticket in Madison, Kenosha, Jefferson, Darlington, Fond Du Lac, Menomine, Fort Atkinson.

In Manitowoc where Socialism was the issue the Socialists were whipped in every ward.

Thomas J. Pringle, Republican, had over 1,000 behind Siedel.

License won over no license in a majority of Wisconsin towns as heard from where these issues were voted.

In Kenosha, M. J. Scholey, Democrat, agent for a brewing company, was elected by 565 votes.

The following voted for license:

Altoona, Kenosha, West Salem, Tomah, Union Grove, Mauston, Lancaster, Galesville, Platteville, Whitehall, Ladysmith, Mineral Point, Pewaukee.

No license: Sparta, Virague, La Forge, Richland Center, Reedstown, Dodgeville.

At Madison Mayor J. C. Shubert, Democrat, has 1,205 over W. J. McKay, who favored Sunday closing. Indications are that John Barnes, of Rhinelander, has been elected justice of the supreme court.

Scattering returns indicate that delegates at large favorable to the nomination of LaFollette at the Republican national convention have been elected as follows:

Isaac Stevens, of Marinette, Henry A. Cooper, of Racine, Wm. Brumber, of Milwaukee, and A. Peterson, of Soldiers Grove.

District delegates favorable to LaFollette have been elected in the First and Seventh districts.

Democrats Win at Kansas City.

Kansas City, April 8.—The entire Democratic ticket, headed by Thomas T. Crittenden, Jr., for mayor, was successful by a majority of probably 599 over the Republican ticket, headed by Mayor Henry M. Beardsley.

This is a change of 2,100 votes since the election in 1906.

The Democrats will control the council.

Crittenden is pledged to support the saloon laws, but during the campaign he had the support of the liquor interests. Beardsley was endorsed by the Ministerial alliance.

Local Optionists' Attacked.

Belvidere, Ill., April 8.—While the local option people were celebrating their victory they were attacked by rowdies who assaulted them with eggs, bricks, stones and other missiles. Dwight Hull and S. F. C. Griffith were painfully injured.

Peoria County Split.

Peoria, Ill., April 8.—Peoria county split on the local option issue today. Eight townships went dry and six wet.

Peoria did not vote on the option issue.

In Tazewell county, Pekin, the principal city, went wet, Washington dry and the country about evenly divided. Fulton county voted all dry save Canton. This wipes out 22 saloons. In Woodford county the majority are for local option. In Marshall county, Lacon and the surrounding townships went wet.

Peoria elected five Democratic and three Republican aldermen.

Mattoon Mayor Resigns.

Mattoon, Ill., April 8.—Lewis L. Lehman, mayor of Mattoon, resigned because the anti-saloon forces triumphed at the elections. Lehman is president of the First National bank and a trustee of the University of Illinois.

Democrat Elected.

St. Joseph, Mo., April 8.—A. P. Clayton, Democrat, one of the most prominent Shriners in America, was elected mayor today by a majority of 273.

Ballots Destroyed.

Menominee, Wis., April 8.—The explosion of a lamp in the Fourth ward polling place destroyed a portion of the ballots before counted. License carried by 643.

Madison, Wis., April 8.—A. T. Rogers and H. E. Stedman were elected delegates from the Second congressional district to the Republican national convention and are for LaFollette.

Prohibitionists Make Gains.

Omaha, April 8.—Meagre returns from the municipal elections throughout the state indicate that the prohibition element made decided gains in Nebraska. Only 30 or 40 towns were heard from up to 10 o'clock.

RAILROAD NOTES

Under a rule which went into effect April 1, the N., C. & St. L. and L. & N. railroads do not accept the 2 cent mileage issued traveling men by the Illinois Central and other railroads except in exchange for tickets at the ticket windows, and then the agent draws mileage equal to 2½ cents for each mile the ticket is issued. Both the roads named have also instructed conductors to collect the full four cents a mile, where passengers pay cash fare to the conductor for passage. The new rules have caused a great deal of confusion to traveling men who were unaware that they are in effect.

George Bibb, the well known Illinois Central engineer, who was hurt by being caught between two cars in the Memphis yards two weeks ago, was brought to the Illinois Central hospital for treatment last night. He has been in a private hospital at Memphis since the accident occurred.

The office, operating the drug store at the Illinois Central hospital, are being thoroughly cleaned and the floors painted today. Extensive improvements have also been made to the hospital stables while additions have been ordered to the bath room.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Cadet class will meet with Superintendent Carnegie at his office this afternoon.

The city schools will be closed at noon Friday on account of the monthly teachers' meeting at the High School building. After the teachers' general meeting the teachers will hold grade meetings. Interesting programs have been prepared for all the meetings.

The Dog as Food.

Some polar explorers say they have no objection to eating dog meat if they can get enough of it. Still, they seem to keep their dogs as a last food resource. The fact is, however, that dogs are eaten to some extent by civilized folk of the Occident; and Germany, at least, collects statistics of the home consumption of this article of food.

Among the curiosities in the statistical volume of the German empire, issued quarterly by the imperial statistical office at Berlin, may always be found the figures of the slaughter of dogs for food. In the first number for 1908, for example, we learn that in the last quarter of 1907 the recorded number of dogs killed for food in Germany was 2,299. About 9,000 dogs a year meet the German demand.

This is a very small number compared with the 4,845,370 hogs that were slaughtered in three months, but the point is that dogs are recognized in Germany as a food commodity, and four times a year occupy column 11 in the official tables of animals killed for food. Prussia in the last quarter consumed only 506 dogs, not one of which is credited to Berlin, the Frankfurt district had market for 81, the Liegnitz for 98, and the Breslau for 180.

The kingdom of Saxony seems to be cultivating the habit, for 1,496 dogs were consumed in that little country, the Chemnitz district taking 668, Dresden 3114, and Leipzig 152. Comparative statistics for the last three years show little variation in the consumption, and the demand seems to be steady, though small. The horse does not appear in these tables, though as food he occupies a rather more important place in France than the dog does in Germany.

As a popular article of diet the dog is confined to some Oriental and aboriginal bills of fare, and the gastronomic appreciation of him is not likely to spread much farther.—New York Sun.

"How does it happen that Brown is treating everybody in sight?" "Why, you see, years ago he presented his wife with a little toy bank in which the child-n could keep their pennies." "I see. And now he finds himself the head of a frugal, industrious family." "No, now he finds himself the bank."—Puck.
